1. PET PROOF

The superhuman pet food can is the ideal product for customers who want to keep their animal friend's food out of reach until feeding time. It features a lock-tight handle to stop cats and dogs from opening the lid, which keeps food fresh with an airtight seal. Made from stainless steel with a plastic inner bucket, it is BPA free to stop any nasty chemicals contaminating food. There's also a convenient scoop and built in wheels. Pet food can wholesales for $135.91.
